Polishing the Deal

Red Apple continues wholesale partnership with Davenport

AHOSKIE, N.C. -- Red Apple Markets Inc., an operating division of Beasley Enterprises Inc., has announced the re-signing of its current grocery and merchandise supply agreement with J.T Davenport & Sons, Sanford, N.C.

"Our Customers clearly enjoy the many products that J.T Davenport has made available to us," said Adam Coleman, vice president and chief operating officer for Red Apple Markets.

Coleman added that the availability of exciting items, and the willingness of J.T Davenport to support the Red Apple REWARDS program, were major factors in the agreement.

"Red Apple and J.T. Davenport will be an excellent ongoing partnership, and through the agreement, we will be providing quality products to our market, and we encourage customers to stop by their favorite Red Apple to try some of the tasty new items" he said.

"The support and information we are given by J.T. Davenport is the type of service that we want for our customers as well," he added. "It's a great partnership."

Red Apple Markets, Ahoskie, N.C., is a convenience store chain with 42 locations serving eastern North Carolina and southern Virginia.
